

Hordville Plans 75th Anniversary Festival

Plans for Hordville's 75th Anniversary Celebration on Saturday and Sunday, September 5 and 6 have been announced.

The Saturday program will start with a parade at 12:30 p.m. There will be a Kiddy Parade in front of the Anniversary Parade. The Parade Committee includes E. N. Parsons, Darold Ortegren and Shorty Hahn.

Judging of the Beard Contest will begin at 2 p.m. and the parade winners will be announced.

Starting at 3 p.m. Saturday and continuing until five o'clock will be kids games, contests, softball games and a Hordville Golf Tournament with the holes located strategically around the community.

There will also be a bingo game, penny pitch, dunking stand and horseback rides.

An Anything Goes contest will be action in the Hordville Park. There will also be booths with baked goods, refreshments and souvenir items.

PORK BARBECUE

The Hordville Pork Barbecue will begin serving at five o'clock in the Community Hall and at six o'clock there will be entertainment including square dancers and folk dancers.

A Street Dance will be held starting at eight o'clock. There will also be a display of pictures in the Community Hall along with a showing of slides and home movies taken in the Hordville vicinity.

SUNDAY PROGRAM

The Sunday anniversary program will start with a joint worship service in the Hordville Park. Church will be followed by a pot-luck dinner at noon.

Following the dinner, the winners of the various drawings will be announced and Hordville pioneer residents will be recognized and honored.

The afternoon program Sunday will include a horseshoe pitching contest and a Flea Market in the park.

Mrs. Randy (Carla) Fowler is the celebration chairman.