Hordville, a school with 16 boys, is winner of the Nebraska Small Schools basket ball championship.

Coach Sydney Kite's Bulldogs have reason to be proud of this honor.

They are the only lads to deal twin defeats to Marquette, state Class D champion. The unfortunate part of the picture for Hordville is that the Class D rulers won the third meeting—the all-important district finals.

The wins over Marquette were sufficient to erase most of the sting from four other Hordville losses—Doniphan, Benedict and a pair to Cairo, No. 2 team in Class D.

Naponee is a strong runner-up.

swept its district, then pressed Sprague-Martel in the play-off.

Hardy vaults into eighth place. Coach Ron Luedke's Dragons split with Byron and came within two points of Edgar in the Guide Rock Invitational.

Republican City, with Reuben Anders holding the reins, and Greeley High, coached by Jim Beck, complete the Top Ten. They are the best of a limited field.
