

Charter Night For Hordville Lions

Hordville Lions Club's Charter Night Banquet was Saturday evening, March 29 in the Hordville High School Auditorium.

More than 130 persons from Hordville, Marquette, Aurora, Columbus, Crete, Clarks, Lincoln and York were present.

The Marquette Lions Club is the sponsor of the Hordville Club.

Lion and Mrs. Howard Cox, Lion and Mrs. Maynard Holtorf and Lion and Mrs. Wayne Supernaw were the hosts and hostesses.

Tables were decorated with purple streamers and plant centerpieces made by the Homemakers On The Move Extension Club.

Merlyn Fowler and Duane DeMers were the program chairmen.

Don Tuttle, president of the Marquette Lions Club called the program to order. Harold Lagoni of the Marquette Club presented the bell and gavel to the new club.

Charter President Richard Carnes gave the official call to order. The Rev. Jackson gave the invocation and benediction.

The Immanuel Lutheran Church group, Joyful Noise and the Hordville High School Freshman Girls Septet provided the entertainment.

Lyle Shaneyfelt of Aurora served as the toastmaster. Past District Governor William Heitman of Crete was the guest speaker. He told of the Lions sight conservation projects.

The charter was presented by District Governor Don Nichols of York. A moment of silence was for deceased charter member Richard Veburg.

LeRoy Jones, secretary-treasurer of the Hordville Lions Club introduced the charter members. Deputy District Governor Don Snoberger of Aurora presided over the gift presentations.

Gifts were from clubs in Lincoln, Bethany, Marquette and a banner from the Aurora, Giltner, Hampton, Phillips, York and Marquette clubs.

Harold Lagoni of Marquette received recognition for his part in organizing the Hordville club.

Darold Ortegren and E. N. Parsons were in charge of the drawing.

Richard Carnes is the Hordville Lions Club president. Bernie Andreasen, Marx Holtorf and Don Bankson are the vice presidents.

LeRoy Jones is the secretary-treasurer with Duane DeMers, Lion tamer and Darold Ortegren as tail twister.

Harold Ortegren and Denny Riekenberg are two-year directors and Gaylen Hanquist and Neil Bankson are one-year directors.

Other charter members are R. A. Anderson, Dean Bankson, Randy Bankson, Harold Blase, Richard Becker, Don Bowers, Glen Carlson, Delane Chader, Howard Cox, Richard Gustafson, Roger Gustafson, Merlin Guilford, Maynard Holtorf, D. L. Hahn, Dean Lindburg, Mike Osburn, Carrol Ortegren, E. N. Parsons, Alan Pickrel, Robert Plankinton, LaVern Schulze, Wayne Supernaw, Richard Thompson, Joe Tyler, Charles VanPelt, Walden Veburg and Kenneth Ziegelbein.

CLUB CHARTER is presented to President Richard Carnes by District Governor Don Nichols of York during the Charter Night program. — News-Register Photo

Carlson Services Tuesday

Rites for Birdie D. Carlson, 90, of Central City were conducted Tuesday, Dec. 9, at the Solt Funeral Home, with the Rev. Ed Bonneau officiating. Burial was in the Pierce Chapel Cemetery near Clarks.

Mrs. George Brandes was the organist. Selections sung by Mrs. Marvin Kyes were "Life's Railway to Heaven" and "In the Garden."

Pallbearers were David Mundt, Jim Ruzicka, Mike Ruzicka, Dean Douthit, Virgil Kuskie and Lowell Harris.

Mrs. Carlson died Saturday, Dec. 6, at the Bethesda Care Center. She was born November 12, 1890, at Clarks, the daughter of Henry and Virginia Richards Shively. She was educated in Merrick County.

She married William J. Garrett November 12, 1914. He died in 1931.

She married Ivor Carlson in 1932. He died in 1938. She was a lifetime Merrick County resident.

Mrs. Carlson attended the Friends Church.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. John (Margie) Mundt of Central City; three grandchildren; ten great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by several brothers and sisters.